

KEY NOTE ADDRESS

The New Frontiers of Railroading

James A McDonald

James A McDonald has served in Senior Executive positions, both line and staff, in three of the largest transportation-based companies in North America. Untill recently a Corporate Vice-President at the headquarters of Canadian Pacific Limited, he is now Senior Management Consultant with the Company's internationally-oriented subsidiary, Canadian Pacific Consulting Services.

Mr McDonald's address will deal with developing frontiers in terms of geography, technology and economics. A complete copy of the address will be distributed at the conclusion of Session 1.
